Call For Entries

StrangeMatterATL invites you to reflect on your own experiences as “woman” in the south. Genderqueer, transgender, and cisgender women of all orientations are asked to define womanhood in their own terms. Emerging, mid-career, and established self identifying women artists residing in: Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida, Tennessee, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia are invited to apply. Activating the Apparatus: Vol 2, Women of the South, will feature 2D & 3D works by at least 50 women identifying artists in the south hosted at The B-complex in Atlanta, GA.

Moreover, StrangeMatterATL embraces representational, observational, abstract, non-objective, and process-based methods. Two-dimensional paintings, drawings, prints, fiber works, and photographs will be selected for creativity, craft, and consistency. Activating the Apparatus: Vol 2 aims to promote inclusivity. Enhancing Atlanta’s art scene with unseen perspectives that celebrate the multifaceted women residing in the southeast, and embolden participating artists.
